Vision, Mission and Values

Values and Philosophy

We serve students and families in our community from Pre-Kindergarten to Grade 9. Our affordable tuition ensures accessibility, thereby fostering economic and social diversity within the school.

At KIS, students enjoy learning in small classes. They flourish from individual attention and interaction with their teachers, staff, classmates and volunteers. KIS encourages a lifelong passion for learning by listening to and attending to students' needs and interests. Teachers and other school staff build the students' confidence by allowing them to learn at their own pace.

The school strives to develop among students a sense of responsibility and self-discipline through age-appropriate guidance and authority. This builds students' awareness socially, emotionally, intellectually and physically. The school environment facilitates children learning to become responsible family and community members. The intent of the school's philosophy is to lead students to understand that their choices and contributions will influence the world, thus teaching them to act with integrity, enthusiasm and commitment.

Student Code of Conduct

Expectations for students:

- Participate in all class and school activities in an attentive and cooperative manner
- Speak and act respectfully toward all teachers, parents, other adults and students
- Be respectful and considerate of oneself and others
- Be respectful of school property and the property of others

Conflicts are a healthy part of life and offer children an opportunity to learn about themselves and others. The manner in which conflicts are handled affect relationships with each other as well as feelings of safety and trust within our school community. KIS is committed to creating a school community that is based on respect, truth and consideration of others, and conflict resolution that is conducted with integrity.

Parent Code of Conduct

As role models for the student's behavior, we expect parents will also conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the school's values, as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct. We recognize that parents are the first educators of their own children, and therefore have a right and responsibility to actively participate in their child's learning. Parents are responsible for building close relationships with the Principal and teachers to support the wellbeing of the students.

In keeping with our mandate of fostering a strong, supportive school community that reflects integrity and respect, we request that parents limit their in-school conversations to supportive interactions and take any areas of concern directly to the administrator. To respect the teaching schedule, parents are requested to promptly leave the school at 8:30am and continue their conversations outside the building.

The parent body helps improve the school and supports the school community through positive, constructive information sharing and problem solving. In the interest of protecting the school's reputation and the private information of individuals, parents are requested to not speak negatively about the school in public settings (including social media sites), but rather bring concerns to the Principal and if necessary the Board of Directors. In the event that parents are found to be communicating negative, confidential, or inappropriate information in relation to any staff member, board member parent or student, etc., they may be brought before the Board of Directors for an investigation and disciplinary hearing. Handling parent or other school concerns constructively and ethically is a priority at KIS, and role models ethical behaviour for the students.

Personal Information Policy

KIS holds the privacy of our students, staff and parents in high esteem. KIS follows the Personal Information Protection Act in processing and maintaining all personal information.

Communication Between Home and School

Open and regular communication is encouraged, as it allows all members of the school community to feel included and informed. Through good communication, members can provide valuable support and direction. KIS keeps parents informed of current issues via see-saw, weekly emails, bulletin board website and social media updates. Parents are expected to read all communications in a timely manner to avoid miscommunication and delays in processing permission forms. Where issues of a more personal nature arise, the individuals concerned will be contacted directly.

The Board of Directors and the Principal are committed to open and transparent communication. Staff, parents and students are encouraged to maintain regular communication. Staff members may be contacted by e-mail, phone or personal interview. If you wish to meet with the Principal or staff, please book an appointment through the office.

Volunteer Hours

Families are required to volunteer 10 or 20 volunteer hours per year.

Childcare part time = 10hrs and $100 deposit

Childcare full-time = 20hrs and $250 deposit

The office requires this deposit at time of registration in the form of eTransfer, cash or a cheque post dated to June 1st 2022. We will reimburse deposit based on any hours completed. We will deposit your cheque if the full required hours are not met. Volunteer Opportunities are displayed on the bulletin board outside the office or by checking your emails. "Volunteer Hour Tracking" binder is located in the front office on the counter. It is the parent/guardians responsibility to update completed hours.

Nutrition and Food Policy

KIS encourages a healthy diet. Please do not send candy, soda pop, chocolate and other junk food. Healthy children are better able to learn. In fact, children with healthy diets have improved brain development and mental abilities, increased self-esteem, reduced anxiety, and less depression and hyperactivity. Schools provide the ideal setting to enable children and youth to make healthy eating choices that support the realization of their individual potential.

Allergies – Nut Aware Environment

KIS is a NUT AWARE environment. Please do not send your child with any nut products. Microwave safe products for warming up lunches must be provided.

Toilet Training

Children who are in the process of toilet training need time, attention and care. This isn't a time that should feel rushed or pressured for the child. As it requires a lot of staff to cover the needs of all the children, it is required that your child be potty trained prior to entering our program.

A potty trained child is a child who can do the following:

- 1) Be able to tell an adult that they have to go potty before they are going.

- If there is diarrhea we will clean up your child the best we can, call you for prompt pick up and will ask you to keep your child at least 24 hours after diarrhea has stopped ( not just 24 hours from pick up)

Wellness Policy

Background

1) Goal: To ensure that there is a common application and understanding of the need for nutritional, physical activity, and mental wellbeing guidelines in our school and the resulting positive affect for the health and academic achievement of all students.

Nutrition

The Kimberley Independent School (KIS) community shall require that all foods made available on the school premise should offer children nutritious choices in accordance with the Guidelines for Food and Beverage Sales in BC Schools and Eating Well with Canada's Food Guide.

a) Food as Rewards: The staff at KIS chooses alternatives to food and beverage rewards for academic performance or desired behaviour.

b) Food Served or Sold at the School: Food and beverages provided or sold by the school will follow the "Choose Most Often" and/or "Choose Sometimes" classification. This includes but is not limited to: food programs (Hot Lunch, taste-testing).

c) Celebrations, Events and Holidays: At KIS, "Choose Most Often" and "Choose Sometimes" foods and beverages will be used at all celebrations, events and holidays. As stated in the BC Ministry of Health's Guidelines for Food and Beverage Sales in BC Schools, foods and beverages from the "Choose Least Often" and "Not Recommended" categories are not suitable for distribution in schools.

Celebrations and holidays at KIS include activities that do not focus on food.

d) Lunches: Staff, parents, and students will demonstrate a commitment to healthy eating by including foods from the "Choose Most Often" and "Choose Sometimes" guidelines in the lunches that they consume at the school.

e) Fundraising: To support student's health and school nutrition-education efforts, school fundraising activities will strive to include food from the "Choose Most Often" and "Choose A Sometimes" guidelines.

f) Staff Role-Modeling: KIS staff recognizes the importance and impact that healthy role modeling can have on influencing student behaviours. All staff members are encouraged to choose food and beverages from the "Choose Most Often" and "Choose Sometimes" guidelines during school hours, school meetings and when interacting with students at school (e.g. staff will not drink soft drinks in the classroom or hallways.)

g) Education: KIS staff will provide nutrition education to the school community to foster lifelong habits of healthy eating. This includes but is not limited to health class, physical education class, and all school sponsored events.

h) Reverse Lunch for Elementary Students: In order to promote active play and then give students ample time to focus on eating, lunch time will occur after 20 minutes of recess activity.

Physical Activity

The Kimberley Independent School community shall require that Daily Physical Activity and active play be integral in our school schedule planning

- a) Daily Physical Activity: Every day students will receive at least 30 minutes and up to 45 minutes of activity in compliance with the Provincial policy, (i.e., sufficient to raise heart rates) including scheduled physical education.
- b) School staff will report to parents on the attainment of the DPA requirement via report cards, as consistent with provincial guidelines.

Positive Mental Wellbeing

The Kimberley Independent School community shall continue to support the positive mental wellbeing of staff and students by:

- fostering a positive social environment
- promoting cognitive, social, and emotional healthy development
- minimizing barriers to development and learning
- provide social/emotional support for students, families, and staff

In promoting positive mental wellbeing, the staff and students of KIS will experience a state of inward readiness for learning and growth; enhanced self-efficacy; heightened awareness of personal strengths and capacities; presence of internal and external protective factors; personal resiliency; and self-determination or self-actualization.

Overdue Account Collections Policy

The Kimberley Independent School must have authority to collect outstanding balances on accounts in arrears. The aim of this policy is to collect overdue balances on accounts from families who have received educational services from KIS in a school year other than the current year from the date of notice.

The Kimberley Independent School will be seeking the following conditions from accounts that are overdue in previous school years:

- 30% minimum down-payment on the overdue balance.
- A monthly repayment schedule, to be received by KIS on the 1st of each month, beginning the following month after down payment has been received (Example 300$ paid March 10, balance monthly repayment schedule to begin April 1st). It will be the sole discretion of the principal and Board of Directors to decide on an appropriate repayment schedule for each individual case following the 30% down payment.

Account holders seeking to make a full lump-sum down payment on an account in arrears, or a larger than 30% down payment, are entitled to do so. The Kimberley Independent School will be placing overdue accounts with a collections agency of their choosing if the following conditions are not met:

- No communication has been received by KIS within 30 days of distributing a 'Notice of Overdue Account' to those families in arrears.
- No payment has been made towards the balance, in accordance with the monthly repayment schedule, without communication of circumstances with the Kimberley Independent School.
- No payment has been made on an overdue account, in accordance with the monthly repayment schedule, for 60 days.

Anti-Bullying, Harassment, and Discrimination Policy

Overview

Kimberley Independent School has a zero tolerance policy for bullying, harassment, or discrimination. At no time will bullying, harassment, or discrimination of students or staff be tolerated. Bullying, harassment, and discrimination are regarded as a serious infringement of school rules and policy.

The safety and wellbeing of children in the Kimberley Independent School is of paramount consideration. Children deserve to be protected from abuse, neglect, bullying, harm or threat of harm. Therefore, KIS will ensure that children attending this school will experience a learning environment that enables every child to feel safe, accepted and respected. Kimberley Independent School will continuously develop strategies to make students feel valued, respected and connected within the school community. This will include the protection of the students' physical safety, social connectedness, inclusiveness as well as protection from all forms of bullying, regardless of their gender, race, culture, religion, sexual orientation or gender identity and expression, while remaining consistent with the independent school's faith-values, cultural perspectives and philosophical values.

The disciplinary policy will be enforced and any matter being identified as bullying, harassment, or discrimination will be thoroughly documented and investigated. If deemed to be bullying, harassment, or discrimination the behavior will be punishable by suspension and/or expulsion from the school. If the suspended student will be returning to the school, a plan will be developed to prevent future bullying or harassment, promote stronger relationships, and a positive social environment.

Any behaviour that intimidates or exposes students or staff to physical harm, ridicule, hatred, or contempt can have a significant negative impact on the school environment. The school will not tolerate retaliation of any sort against a student who reports a concern (witnessed, rumoured, etc.). If a student is found to have made a false claim or accusation, they shall face consequences determined appropriate by the school administrator.

There is a growing concern about conduct called "cyber-bullying" that has had a profound negative impact not only on students' ability to learn in school, but also the school's status as a caring and orderly learning and working environment.

The KIS Codes of Conduct are informed by the BC Human Rights Code, which states that two of its purposes are to:

- "foster a society in British Columbia in which there are no impediments to full and free participation in economic, social, political and cultural life of British Columbia," and
- "promote a climate of understanding and mutual respect where all are equal in dignity and rights."

- Students' feelings of safety and belonging, including freedom from discrimination, can seriously affect their ability to learn in school. As the "Safe Caring and Orderly Schools: A Guide", states, schools should be places where students are free from harm, where clear expectations of acceptable behaviour are held and met, and where all members feel they belong.

Safe schools:

- Make it easy and safe for students and their parents to inform school authorities of safety concerns
- Make a "big deal" about bullying, harassment and intimidation

Caring schools:

- Enable parents to advocate for their children's well-being
- Enable students to help each other
- Promote appropriate adult-student relationships

Orderly schools:

- Plan for things to "go right" and are ready to respond appropriately if or when things "go wrong"
- Minimize distractions from purposeful learning activities
- Are characterized by a climate of mutual respect and responsibility

Bullying behaviour is a type of harassment and intimidation. This aggressive behavior includes physical or verbal behaviour, and is an intentional and purposeful act meant to inflict injury or discomfort on the other person. There are three critical conditions that distinguish bullying from other forms of aggressive behaviour including:

1. Power: involves a power imbalance. Individuals who bully acquire their power through physical size and strength, including status within the peer group, and/or by recruiting support of the peer group.

Any of the following behaviours could be considered harassment:

1. Condescending treatment that undermines another's self-respect, name-calling, teasing, disrespectful comments
  2. Gossiping, spreading malicious rumours, "dirty" looks, social ridicule, public embarrassment
  3. Social isolation ("freezing out" or rejecting others), exclusion from a group, threatening to withdraw friendship
  4. Repeated unwanted communication
  5. Unwelcome jokes, innuendoes, insults, or put downs; taunts about a person's body, disability, religion, attire, age, economic status, ethnic or national origin
  6. Insulting graffiti directed at an individual or group
  7. Unwanted and uninvited sexual attention, particularly when it is intimidating, hostile, or offensive to the recipient.
8. Intimidation: Intimidation is the act of instilling fear in someone as a means of controlling that person. For example, any of the following behaviours could be considered intimidation:
    9. Verbal threats: threatening phone calls, threats of violence against a person or property
    10. Physical threats: showing a weapon, jostling, threatening to punch, stalking or following
    11. Defacing or stealing victim's property
    12. Daring or coercing victim to do something dangerous or illegal
    13. Extortion (demanding payment or goods for a victim's safety)
    14. Inciting hatred toward a victim
    15. Setting up a victim to take the blame for an offence

Disciplinary Policy

Our objective is to foster in our students the care, respect and consideration for oneself, other individuals and their property, and to enable our students to develop a sense of responsibility and self-discipline through age-appropriate guidance and authority based on the principles of the Kimberley Independent School.

Guidelines for Discipline

Day-to-Day Discipline Issues

- Guidelines and expectations for students' behavior and actions in their class are consistent with the School's expectations as outlined in the Code of Conduct, and review them with their students.
- Consequences for not meeting expectations will be assigned by the classroom teacher and will be applied in the context of the student's transgression, the child's age, his or her temperament and the history of the student's behavioural conduct.
- Consequences may include an apology, a body break or a visit to the Principals office. If deemed necessary the teacher involved will contact parents to report the student's behavior.
- If a discipline issue is continual, the class teacher will contact the principal who will then contact the parents to discuss and issue possible solutions.
- In some cases of a more extreme nature, the class teacher and the principal may recommend an out-of-school suspension. The length of the suspension (not to exceed 5 days) and whether it warrants a Contract for Continued Enrollment will be determined at this time. The student, parents and teacher will be informed of the suspension and the teacher will make a written report.
- The Board of Directors will be informed of the out-of-school suspension at its next meeting.
- All inappropriate behaviour and resulting consequences will be reported to and documented by the student's class teacher and the principal, if required.
- Some students may struggle with impulsive behaviour, and may or may not have a diagnosed special need. The school will strive to work with parents and other supportive professionals to ensure the student's needs are met.
- To ensure the safety of all students and allow educators to maintain a high quality of service. It is recommended that each classroom have no more than 2 students with special needs. The principal may modify the number of students with special needs per classroom, so long as safety and quality of learning are maintained. Factors influencing the number of students with special needs include: type and severity of special need, existing capacity in the classroom, meeting the needs of current students, obtaining additional resources to support the student with special needs.
- If a student requires additional professional assessments and/or supports and has become a danger to him/herself or others, that student may be asked not to attend school until the assessments are completed and adequate supports are in place.

KIS Society Appeals Policy and Procedures

Parents and Students

It is recommended that you initially speak to the teacher to try to resolve an issue. Then talk to the Principal, and if there is still no resolution, which you are satisfied with, contact the Board of Directors in writing and then make an appointment to address them directly.

Procedural Fairness

It is important to us as an organization the procedures followed in making decisions affecting students or staff members are fair, and are seen to be fair. Fair procedures reassure students, parents and staff by providing integrity and consistency in respect to decisions made in the school, which in turn will help to avoid misunderstandings and disputes.

- If KIS is intending to consider a matter which may affect a person's rights, that person will be informed of the matter: the person will be given a reasonable opportunity to make oral written submissions to:
- KIS Society on the matter being considered;
- The person is entitled to know and answer the case against them, that is to say be informed of and given the opportunity to respond to all information submitted which might influence a decision, prior to the decision being made;
- The person will be told the reasons for the decision;
- KIS Society will act in a manner, which is unbiased, fair, and open-minded.

Procedural Fairness Regarding Student Infractions

Students will be treated with respect and dignity and will know what is expected of them. KIS Society has a code of conduct and rules that are signed by both the parent and the students to ensure that they are aware of the expectations of the school.

The requirements of procedural fairness; depends on the seriousness of the matter being decided. At the low end of the scale, an informal meeting between the principal or teacher and the student will appropriately deal with a minor infraction.

A decision respecting the possible suspension or expulsion of a student will be considered at the high end of the scale because of the serious implications for the student. These cases call for careful observance of all elements of procedural fairness and a full hearing.

In accordance with school policy, a student who is accused of breaching a rule will be notified of that of which he/she is accused, with the essential facts of what he/she is alleged to have done. In more serious cases, parents will be notified.

An accused student will be given the opportunity to tell his/her side of the story in the form of an interview. This will then be recorded by the person conducting the interview and signed by the student. Where the incident is minor, the principal or teacher concerned can satisfy this. In more serious cases, the principal will become involved, and finally if the principal and student/parents cannot reach a satisfactory decision, then the principal and/or parents/student may appeal to the Board of Directors in writing for a full hearing process.

Student/Parent Appeals

In the case that a student and/or parent or the principal are not satisfied with the outcome of addressing a concern or issue together, they may appeal to the Board of Directors in writing for review of the issue. If a student or parent has concerns about the conduct of the principal, they may appeal to the "school official" on the Board of Directors for review, and possibly a full hearing. The Vice President and Chair of the Board in designated the "school official". KIS

Full Hearing Process with Board of Directors

- In selecting the persons to hear an appeal, the Board of Directors will avoid those who have a close out of school relationship, family ties, or adversarial relationship with the student or student's family, or a staff member who is closely involved in the incident.
- Since Kimberley is a small community it may be difficult to find persons who do not have an appearance of bias regarding a particular appeal. In such situations the school will appoint a person(s) from outside the school community to handle the appeal.
- The purpose of a full hearing is to give the student/parent the opportunity for a fair and unbiased review of the original decision.
- The process will be limited to a review of the procedures followed by the original decision maker to ensure fairness and correctness. The Board does not have the power to overturn the original decision unless the Board found that a procedure was unfair or incorrectly implemented. In which case the Board would review the decision.
- If the dispute warrants a full hearing with the Board of Directors, then the student/parent and principal will be given the opportunity to present their perspectives on the issue at hand.
- The principal and the student/parent will be asked to leave the room while the Board of Directors discuss the matter and come to a decision.
- The principal and student/parent will then return to hear the final decision.
- There will be no retribution for pursuing an appeal or review.
