Encourage to Succeed

Vision

KIS aims to create a nurturing learning environment, where young minds flourish.

Mission Statement:

Kimberley Independent School provides a nurturing and inclusive educational experience through focused attention, small class sizes and rich, place-based learning in the natural environment. We deliver an innovative curriculum, exceeding B.C. standards to cultivate creativity, build confidence, and develop essential problem-solving skills. We empower every student to become a resilient and passionate life-long learner.

Core Values:

- Holistic Development: Nurturing academic, emotional, physical, and social growth.
- Exploration & Discovery: Emphasising hands-on, experiential, and place-based learning, especially outdoors.
- Community & Inclusivity: Fostering a welcoming and supportive environment for students, families, and staff, and promoting strong community connections.
- Excellence & Innovation: Exceeding curriculum standards, embracing diverse programming, and continuously seeking improvement.
- Personalised Attention: Committing to small class sizes and meeting each child where they are at.

At KIS, students enjoy learning in small classes. They flourish from individual attention and interaction with their teachers, staff, classmates and volunteers. KIS encourages a lifelong passion for learning by listening to and attending to students' needs and interests. Teachers and other school staff build the students' confidence by ensuring that they are learning at their own pace. The school's focus on core subject areas, French class, daily physical activity, outdoor education and artistic opportunities ensure a well-rounded curriculum.

The school strives to develop among students a sense of responsibility and self-discipline through age-appropriate guidance and authority. This builds their awareness socially, emotionally, intellectually and physically. The school environment facilitates children learning to become responsible family and community members. The intent of the school's philosophy is to lead students to understand that their choices and contributions will influence the world, thus teaching them to act with integrity, enthusiasm and commitment.

The manner in which conflicts are handled affect relationships with each other, as well as feelings of safety and trust within our school community. KIS is committed to creating a school community that is based on respect, truth and consideration of others, and conflict resolution that is conducted with integrity.

3.4 Parent Code of Conduct

We are very fortunate to have a supportive and friendly parent body. Our parents recognise that educating children is a process that involves partnership between parents, class teachers and the school community. As a partnership, our parents/carers will understand the importance of a good working relationship to equip children with the necessary skills, academic, social, and emotional skills to prepare for adulthood. For these reasons, we continue to welcome and encourage parents/carers to participate fully in the life of our school.

As role models for the student's behavior, we expect parents will also conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the school's values, as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct. We recognise that parents are the first educators of their own children and therefore have a right and responsibility to actively participate in their child's education. Parents are responsible for building close relationships with the Principal and teachers to support the wellbeing of the students.

In keeping with our mandate of fostering a strong, supportive school community that reflects integrity and respect, we request that parents limit their in-school conversations to supportive and positive interactions Principal or set up a meeting with the teacher. To respect the teaching schedule, parents are requested to promptly leave the school at 8:30 am and at 3:00 pm. Teachers' hours are from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm and during non-instructional time they will be available to respond to emails, or other types of communication the school uses, such as a mobile app like Seesaw. Please allow 5 days for a response. It is recommended that if a conversation is required with a teacher to schedule a time to meet with the teacher directly.

The parent body helps improve the school and supports the school community through positive, constructive information sharing and problem-solving. In the interest of protecting the school's reputation and the private information of individuals, parents are requested to not speak negatively about the school in public settings (including social media sites), but rather bring concerns to the Principal and if necessary the Board of Directors using the directors@kis.ca email process. In the event that a parent is found to be communicating negative, confidential, or inappropriate information about school operations, staff member(s), board member(s), parent(s) or student(s), etc., they may be brought before the Board of Directors for an investigation and disciplinary hearing. Handling parent or other school concerns constructively and ethically is a priority at KIS, as we consider ourselves as role models in ethical behaviour for the students.

5. Health and Safety

5.1 Anti-Bullying, Harassment, and Discrimination Policy

Overview

Kimberley Independent School has a zero-tolerance policy for bullying, harassment, or discrimination. At no time will bullying, harassment, or discrimination of students or staff be tolerated. Bullying, harassment, and discrimination are regarded as a serious infringement of school rules and policy.

The safety and wellbeing of children in the Kimberley Independent School is of paramount consideration. Children deserve to be protected from abuse, neglect, bullying, harm or threat of harm. Therefore, KIS will ensure that children attending this school will experience a learning environment that enables every child to feel safe, accepted and respected. Kimberley Independent School will continuously develop strategies to make students feel valued, respected and connected within the school community. This will include the protection of the students' physical safety, social connectedness, inclusiveness, as well as protection from all forms of bullying, regardless of their gender, race, culture, religion, sexual orientation or gender identity and expression.]

The disciplinary policy will be enforced and any matter being identified as bullying, harassment, or discrimination will be thoroughly documented and investigated. If deemed to be bullying, harassment, or discrimination, the behavior may be punishable by suspension and/or expulsion from the school.

If the suspended student will be returning to the school, a plan will be developed to prevent future bullying or harassment, promote stronger relationships, and a positive social environment.

Any behaviour that intimidates or exposes students or staff to physical harm, ridicule, hatred, or contempt can have a significant negative impact on the school environment. The school will not tolerate retaliation of any sort against a student who reports a concern (witnessed, rumoured, etc.). If a student is found to have made a false claim or accusation, they shall face consequences determined appropriate by the school administrator.

Cyberbullying has had a profound negative impact not only on students' ability to learn in school, but also the school's status as a caring and orderly learning and working environment and will be taken seriously.

The KIS Codes of Conduct are informed by the BC Human Rights Code, which states that two of its purposes are to:

- "foster a society in British Columbia in which there are no impediments to full and free participation in economic, social, political and cultural life of British Columbia," and
- "promote a climate of understanding and mutual respect where all are equal in dignity and rights."
- Students' feelings of safety and belonging, including freedom from discrimination, can seriously affect their ability to learn in school.

As the "Safe Caring and Orderly Schools: A Guide" states, schools should be places where students are free from harm, where clear expectations of acceptable behaviour are held and met, and where all members feel they belong.

Safe schools:

- Make it easy and safe for students and their parents to inform school authorities of safety concerns
- Make a "big deal" about bullying, harassment and intimidation

Caring schools:

- Enable parents to advocate for their children's well-being
- Enable students to help each other
- Promote appropriate adult-student relationships

Orderly schools:

- Plan for things to "go right" and are ready to respond appropriately if or when things "go wrong"
- Minimize distractions from purposeful learning activities
- Are characterized by a climate of mutual respect and responsibility

Definitions

Bullying behaviour: a pattern of repeated aggressive behaviour, with negative intent, directed from one person to another where there is a power imbalance. Bullying behaviour is a type of harassment and intimidation. This aggressive behavior includes physical or verbal behaviour, and is an intentional and purposeful act meant to inflict injury or discomfort on the other person. There are three critical conditions that distinguish bullying from other forms of aggressive behaviour including:

1. Power: involves a power imbalance. Individuals who bully acquire their power through physical size and strength, including status within the peer group, and/or by recruiting support of the peer group.
2. Frequency: is repeated over time. Bullying is characterized by frequent and repeated attacks. It is this factor that brings about the anticipatory terror in the mind of the person being bullied that can be so detrimental and can have the most debilitating long-term effects.
3. Intent to harm: is intended to hurt. Individuals who bully generally do so with the intent to either physically or emotionally harm the other person.

Cyberbullying: bullying behaviour which is carried out through an internet service such as email, chat room, social media, blog, discussion group or instant messaging. It can also include bullying through mobile phone technologies and new internet technologies in the future.

Harassment: any unwelcome or unwanted act or comment that is hurtful, degrading, humiliating, or offensive to another person is an act of harassment. Of particular concern is such behaviour that persists after the aggressor has been asked to stop.

Any of the following behaviours could be considered harassment:

1. Condescending treatment that undermines another's self-respect, name-calling, teasing, disrespectful comments
2. Gossiping, spreading malicious rumours, "dirty" looks, social ridicule, public embarrassment
3. Social isolation ("freezing out" or rejecting others), exclusion from a group, threatening to withdraw friendship
4. Repeated unwanted communication
5. Unwelcome jokes, innuendoes, insults, or put downs; taunts about a person's body, disability, religion, attire, age, economic status, ethnic or national origin
6. Insulting graffiti directed at an individual or group
7. Unwanted and uninvited sexual attention, particularly when it is intimidating, hostile, or offensive to the recipient.
8. Intimidation: Intimidation is the act of instilling fear in someone as a means of controlling that person. For example, any of the following behaviours could be considered intimidation:
 9. Verbal threats: threatening phone calls, threats of violence against a person or property
 10. Physical threats: showing a weapon, jostling, threatening to punch, stalking or following
 11. Defacing or stealing victim's property
 12. Daring or coercing victim to do something dangerous or illegal
 13. Extortion (demanding payment or goods for a victim's safety)
 14. Inciting hatred toward a victim
 15. Setting up a victim to take the blame for an offence

5.2 Disciplinary Policy

Our objective is to foster in our students the care, respect and consideration for oneself, other individuals and their property, and to enable our students to develop a sense of responsibility and self-discipline through age-appropriate guidance and authority based on the principles of the Kimberley Independent School.

Elementary

In the elementary school, the teacher stands as a loving authority and a worthy model for the children. In giving guidance, setting boundaries and assigning consequences the teacher draws upon the longer-term relationship with their students and a deep awareness of each child's individual temperament. The foundation of rhythms and routines established in early childhood is further developed by practice of good habits, which foster the emergence of self-discipline.

Middle School

In junior high, the student's strengthening sense of self-discipline is called upon when they take responsibility for their actions and accept the consequences of their behavior. Students are able to experience dignity and self-worth when they are able to redeem their actions through reparative or restorative activities. While students are experiencing a growing need for individual expression, teachers still set clear boundaries and consequences to meet the older student's need for clarity, firmness and fairness.

Discontinued Enrollment

We believe that students will develop maturity, responsibility and self-discipline by engaging in the rich curriculum guided by the authority of their teachers and by experiencing the consequences of their actions within our school environment. However, when the teachers no longer believe they can affect transformation in a student due to the persistence and/or nature of a child's behavior, the school may decide it is in the best interest of everyone that the student leaves the school.

Refer to Student Codes of Conduct

Guidelines for Discipline

Day-to-Day Discipline Issues

- Teachers set guidelines and expectations for students' behavior and actions in their class, consistent with the School's expectations and the Code of Conduct, and review them with their students.
- Consequences for not meeting expectations will be assigned by the classroom teacher and will be applied in the context of the student's transgression, the child's age, his or her temperament and the history of the student's behavioural conduct.
- Consequences may include a detention, a letter of apology, an essay on the importance of respecting the rules.
- If deemed necessary the teacher involved will contact the Principal/parents to report the student's behavior. The Principal may choose to send the child home and your child must be picked up within one hour. If a parent is unavailable for pickup alternative arrangements must be made by the parent.
- If a discipline issue is continual, the class teacher will contact the Principal who will then contact the parents to discuss and issue possible solutions. At this time, the class teacher should inform parents of the student's status on the discipline policy.
- In some cases of a more extreme nature, the class teacher and the Principal may recommend an out-of-school suspension. The length of the suspension (not to exceed 5 days) and whether it warrants a Contract for Continued Enrollment will be determined at this time. The student, parents and teacher will be informed of the suspension and the teacher will make a written report.
- The Board of Directors will be informed of the out-of-school suspension at the next meeting.
- All inappropriate behaviour and resulting consequences will be reported to and documented by the student's class teacher and the Principal, if required.

Persistent Discipline Issues – Contract for Continued Enrollment

- When a student's misconduct becomes persistent, their actions may become a detriment to the learning environment for the other students. The class teacher and principal may initiate a Contract for Continued Enrollment for the student.
- At the spring Parent/Teacher Interview, the class teacher and parents review the student's re-enrollment for the coming year. The class teacher may at that time recommend the placement of the child on a contract until the end of the school year, or reintegrate the student in o the class.

Persistent Discipline Issues – Students with Special Needs

- Some students may struggle with impulsive behaviour, and may or may not have a diagnosed special need. The school will strive to work with parents and other supportive professionals to ensure the student's needs are met.
- To ensure the safety of all students and allow educators to maintain a high quality of service. It is recommended that each classroom have no more than 2 students with special needs. The Principal may modify the number of students with special needs per classroom, so long as safety and quality of learning are maintained. Factors influencing the number of students with special needs include: type and severity of special need, existing capacity in the classroom, meeting the needs of current students, obtaining additional resources to support the student with special needs.
- If a student requires additional professional assessments and/or supports and has become a danger to themselves or others, that student may be asked not to attend school until the assessments are completed and adequate supports are in place.

5.3 KIS Society Appeals Policy and Procedures

Parents and Students

It is recommended that you initially speak to the teacher to try to resolve an issue. Then talk to the Principal, and if there is still no resolution, that you are satisfied with, contact the Board of Directors: directors@kis.ca

Procedural Fairness

It is important to us as an organization that the procedures followed in making decisions affecting students or staff members are fair and are seen to be fair. Fair procedures reassure students, parents and staff by providing integrity and consistency in respect to decisions made in the school, which in turn will help to avoid misunderstandings and disputes.

If KIS is intending to consider a matter which may affect a staff member, student or parent, the parent or staff member will be informed of the matter: the parent or staff member will be given a reasonable opportunity to make oral written submissions to KIS Society on the matter being considered.

- The parent or staff member is entitled to know and answer the case against them, meaning that they will be informed of and given the opportunity to respond to all information submitted which might influence a decision, prior to the decision being made;
- The parent or staff member will be told the reasons for the decision;
- KIS Society will act in a manner, which is unbiased, fair, and open-minded.

Procedural Fairness Regarding Student Infractions

- Students will be treated with respect and dignity and will know what is expected of them. KIS Society has a code of conduct and rules that are signed by both the parent and the students to ensure that they are aware of the expectations of the school.
- The requirements of procedural fairness depends on the seriousness of the matter being decided. At the low end of the scale, an informal meeting between the principal or teacher and the student will appropriately deal with a minor infraction.
- A decision respecting the possible suspension or expulsion of a student will be considered at the high end of the scale because of the serious implications for the student. These cases call for careful observance of all elements of procedural fairness and a full hearing.
- In accordance with school policy, a student who is accused of breaching a rule will be notified of that of which he/she is accused, with the essential facts of what he/she is alleged to have done. In more serious cases, parents will be notified.
- An accused student will be given the opportunity to tell his/her side of the story in the form of an interview. This will then be recorded by the person conducting the interview and signed by the student. Where the incident is minor, the Principal or teacher concerned can satisfy this. In more serious cases, the Principal will become involved, and finally if the principal and student/parents cannot reach a satisfactory decision, then the principal and/or parents/student may appeal to the Board of Directors in writing for a full hearing process.

Student/Parent Appeals

In the case that a student and/or parent or the principal are not satisfied with the outcome of addressing a concern or issue together, they may appeal to the Board of Directors in writing for review of the issue. If a student or parent has concerns about the conduct of the principal, they may appeal to the “school official” on the Board of Directors for review, and possibly a full hearing. The Vice President and Chair of the Board in designated the “school official”.

Full Hearing Process with Board of Directors

- In selecting the persons to hear an appeal, the Board of Directors will avoid those who have a close out-of-school relationship, family ties, or adversarial relationship with the student or student's family, or a staff member who is closely involved in the incident.
- Since Kimberley is a small community, it may be difficult to find persons who do not have an appearance of bias regarding a particular appeal. In such situations the school will appoint a person(s) from outside the school community to handle the appeal.
- The purpose of a full hearing is to give the student/parent the opportunity for a fair and unbiased review of the original decision.
- The process will be limited to a review of the procedures followed by the original decision maker to ensure fairness and correctness. The Board of Directors does not have the power to overturn the original decision unless the Board of Director found that a procedure was unfair or incorrectly implemented. In which case the Board of Directors would review the decision.
- If the dispute warrants a full hearing with the Board of Directors, then the student/parent and Principal will be given the opportunity to present their perspectives on the issue.
- The Principal and the student/parent will be asked to leave the room while the Board of Directors discuss the matter and come to a decision.
- The Principal and student/parent will then return to hear the final decision.
- There will be no retribution for pursuing an appeal or review.

5.4 Nutrition and Food Policy

KIS encourages a healthy diet. Please do not send candy, soda pop, chocolate and other junk food. Healthy children are better able to learn. In fact, children with healthy diets have improved brain development and mental abilities, increased self-esteem, reduced anxiety, and less depression and hyperactivity. Schools provide the ideal setting to enable children and youth to make healthy eating choices that support the realization of their individual potential.

KIS is a NUT-FREE environment. Please do not send your child with any nut products in snacks or lunches.

6.1 Enrollment, Tuition & Family Commitment Policy

Purpose

Kimberley Independent School (KIS) is committed to providing a supportive, inclusive, and engaging learning environment where students are known, valued, and encouraged to reach their full potential.

This policy outlines admission requirements, enrollment expectations, tuition obligations, and procedures related to registration and withdrawal.

Admission and EnrollmentEnrollment Eligibility

Kimberley Independent School welcomes applications from families who support the values and educational approach of KIS.

Students entering Kindergarten must be five (5) years of age on or before December 31st of the year they begin Kindergarten.

Students entering other grade levels will generally be placed according to age, previous educational experience, and developmental readiness.

- academic readiness;
- social and emotional development;
- student confidence and independence;
- previous school experience;
- learning profile and support needs;
- best placement for student success.

KIS supports students progressing with their age-appropriate peers and does not routinely recommend grade retention. Consideration may be given in circumstances where it is determined to be in the student's best interest.

Kimberley Independent School strives to provide an inclusive learning environment that supports the diverse needs of students. In some circumstances, a student may require additional supports beyond what can reasonably be provided through regular staffing levels, available resources, or Ministry funding. Where significant additional individualized support is identified, the school will work collaboratively with families to review the student's needs, available assessments, funding opportunities, and appropriate accommodations.

If, after these considerations, additional supports are required beyond those reasonably available through the school's resources, families may be responsible for an additional fee aligned with the cost of providing those supports. These arrangements will be discussed collaboratively with families before implementation.

Families are expected to commit to the full school year when registering.

Withdrawal during the school year is strongly discouraged due to the impact on classroom planning, staffing, and financial commitments.

Families wishing to withdraw a student must:

- complete a Student Withdrawal Form;
- complete a Release of Student Records Form.

Upon withdrawal:

- tuition obligations for the remainder of the school year remain applicable;
- lost Ministry funding reimbursement may be required where applicable;
- non-refundable fees remain in effect;

- follow school expectations;
- maintain updated student information;
- work collaboratively with the school to support student success.

KIS reserves the right to review enrollment where the school is unable to meet a student's needs or where continued enrollment is not in the best interest of the student or school community.

6.2 Overdue Account Collections Policy

To cover the administrative and accounting costs associated with processing late payments or insufficient funds for cheques or PAD, a charge of $20.00 will apply (not including any bank fees) to all returned cheques and late payments. The outstanding balance, including late payment fee, is due immediately upon notice.

Late fees may incur interest.

Please provide Kimberley Independent School with up to date banking information or contact information if you change your bank account or the email address where invoices should be sent.

As a not-for-profit society, the Board of Directors makes staffing and programming decisions for each school year in advance, based on projected revenue and expenses. The Board of Directors will take necessary steps to recover any losses incurred by non-payment of fees owed.

The Kimberley Independent School must have authority to collect outstanding balances on accounts in arrears. The aim of this policy is to collect overdue balances on accounts from families who have received educational services from Kimberley Independent School in a prior school year from the date of notice.

The Kimberley Independent School will impose the following conditions on accounts that are:

- 100% lump-sum payment of amount owing
- Or—
- Minimum 30% minimum down-payment on the overdue balance
- A monthly repayment schedule, to be received by KIS on the 1st of each month, beginning the following month after down payment has been received (Example: 300$ paid March 10, balance monthly repayment schedule to begin April 1st). It will be the sole discretion of the Principal and Board of Directors to decide on an appropriate repayment schedule for each individual case following the 30% down payment.

The Kimberley Independent School will send overdue accounts to a collections agency if the following conditions are not met:

- No communication has been received by Kimberley Independent School within 30 days of distributing a 'Notice of Overdue Account' to families in arrears.

- No payment has been made towards the balance, in accordance with the monthly repayment schedule, without communication of circumstances with the Kimberley Independent School.
- No payment has been made on an overdue account, in accordance with the monthly repayment schedule, for 60 days.

6.3 Volunteer Hours

Families are required to volunteer 20 hours per year. The office requires a deposit of $250.00 at the beginning of the school year via postdated cheque for June 1st of the following year.

Families who do not complete the required hours, we will deposit your cheque. It is essential that you complete all of your hours. If you have not completed hours, there are options to purchase items for the school. Volunteer hours cannot roll over to the following year. This may be looked at in a case-by-case scenario in extenuating circumstances, and the office will make the final determination.

Volunteer Opportunities will be communicated with parents through email, seesaw, and the website.

Parents must keep your own record of volunteer hours and log in the binder outside the office. An update of volunteer hours completed will be sent at the end of Term 2.

7. Extracurricular Activities

7.1 Flex Friday

Friday afternoons, from 1:30 to 2:50, in blocks of 3-5 weeks throughout the year, we run our Flex Friday Program. This program gives students the opportunity to choose from a variety of activities over several weeks. The groups are comprised of students from multiple grades, providing the chance to learn something new, participate in activities they enjoy, and build connections with students from other grades and classes.

Parents and family members are encouraged and invited to participate in Flex Fridays as volunteers to support the activities being offered.

7.2 Field Trip Policy

Field Trip Policy

Kimberley Independent School encourages teachers to enhance and deepen their students' experience of the curriculum through field trips. The academic, social, cultural and physical developmental goals of the curriculum are to be central to the purpose of the field trips. Students are likely to be involved in several activities during the year. The safety and wellbeing of the students and adults on the field trip are of primary importance.

Guidelines

1. Teachers are to ensure that all the considerations of safety and wellbeing have been addressed and all the necessary preparations and precautions have been taken.

2. The same high standards of behavioural conduct are expected, as outlined in the Kimberley Independent School Code of Conduct during field trips. The Disciplinary Policy is in effect while students are on field trips.
3. Scheduling Trips:
 - Trips should be booked in advance, to inform parents of outings.
 - Parents should be asked to volunteer at least one week before the trip.
 - Parent volunteers and guest speakers, guides, etc. must have a current criminal record check completed.
 - Parent drivers must have the correct type of driver's license, a clean driver's abstract, and be verified by the office.
4. Field trips are to be kept within a reasonable cost and pre-approved by the Principal.
5. The chosen field trips should have a direct and reinforcing effect on the students' studies. The atmosphere of a pleasure vacation is to be avoided. Serious consideration is also to be given to trips that offer opportunities for outdoor education, community service and/or character-building activities.
6. The agreement and cooperation of the students' parents is essential for the success of the trip. Parents must provide written consent in advance of the trip for students to participate.

Procedures

1. The safety procedures and protocols below are to be carefully followed in preparation for the trip. Every effort must be made to ensure that the safety procedures are followed for the duration of the trip.
2. Teachers are to review with their students the standards of behaviour that will be expected of them on the trip. If the trip is in a natural setting, care and consideration of the environment will also be discussed.
3. Teachers should ensure they include the following in their supplies:
 - a. First Aid Kit(s)
 - b. Mobile phone and that the office has a contact number noted.
 - c. A class list with all medical and behavioural issues noted. As well as all emergency contact details for each child.
 - d. The office should have full details of the following:
 - i. Route taken to the destination.
 - ii. The contact details of the destination.
 - iii. Nature of the outing
 - e. Medical information form should be given to each supporting adult relating to any of the children in their allocated group.
4. At least one staff member going on the trip should be First Aid trained.
5. Teachers should ensure that any preliminary or follow-up work related to the trip should be done. This does not have to take the form of a written activity.

Risk Mitigation

1. A paramount consideration when selecting, planning, organizing and conducting student field studies is to minimize everyone's risk, as all field trips entail some element of risk. Risk cannot be eliminated, but it can be mitigated. All staff involved in student field trips are expected to give careful consideration to the management of risks.

2. Student field trips involve different degrees of risk and, accordingly, call for different levels of duty of care, parent communication and parent consent.
3. When planning field trips, opportunities within the local area will be prioritized. All other factors being equal, local field trips may eliminate many of the negative factors and risks often associated with travel outside the community.
4. To minimize risk and maximize safety, the following measures apply:
 - a. Student group characteristics of age, developmental level, area of study, skills and self-discipline will be considered in selecting appropriate field trips.
 - b. Information about field-trip opportunities will be provided to parents to enable them to decline those opportunities they believe may be inappropriate for their child or exceed their risk tolerance.
 - c. Parental permission forms will include the opportunity for parents to communicate their child's unique medical, dietary and other special considerations.
 - d. Safety assessment must be addressed before plans are finalized for all new field trips. This will vary from informal information gathering on routine or repeat field studies to systematic review of more complex field trips.
5. Required specialized resources will be identified and incorporated into the program. These resources may include
 - safety equipment;
 - first aid kit and cellphone/SAT phone;
 - qualified instructors; and/or
 - guides familiar with the area.
6. Students with diverse needs must be provided with appropriate safety equipment both for their transportation and their participation in activities.
7. Preparatory instruction of students will include both the development of physical skills and the self-discipline to participate.
8. Parent meetings may be organized to provide parents with risk-assessment information and to inform them of and reinforce school expectations.
9. A supervision plan will be drafted and approved.
10. Volunteers will be selected, be provided orientation and will be supervised. Transportation will be planned that is safe and any volunteer drivers will be selected, provided orientation and will be supervised.
11. Critical incident response plans/safety plans will be developed before the field trip that will be used to respond to emergency situations.
12. Emergency contact/health forms must be accessible during the field trip.

Safety Protocols

1. In an emergency, 9-1-1 must be called before anything else.
2. A safety assessment must be conducted for all off-site activities. A safety plan/emergency response plan must be included in the planning process for all field trips.
3. Supervisors must be aware of any potential student medical problems, (e.g., bee-sting allergies). Students with emergency-alert situations will be under the direct supervision of a supervisor.

4. Supervisors must be aware of any legal alerts while outside of the school site and understand the implications of any court orders.
5. For field trips that are safety-sensitive, the educator-in-charge must organize for the above-noted medical concerns, as well as a first aid kit appropriate to the needs of the students and the nature of the event.
6. A chain of notification is to be established in the event of an emergency. This chain must include the parents, the principal, and school office admin.
7. A means of emergency communication is to be available.
8. A supervision plan must be in place that supports both the injured student and the remaining students participating in the activity.
9. For any student injured on a field trip, an Incident Reporting Form must be completed as soon as is practicable. A copy of the form and the signed, school-based parent consent form must be forwarded to the secretary-treasurer's office.
10. A student has the right to opt out of any activity if they are concerned for their safety. Educators-in-charge must accommodate that student.

Safety Equipment

Safety helmets must be worn by all students involved in cycling, downhill skiing, snowboarding, ice skating, skateboarding, rollerblading, and whitewater activities. Helmets are strongly recommended for any activities where a head injury is a risk.

For boating activities, including aquatic paddling, students must be wearing Transport Canada approved lifejackets or Type I-approved personal flotation devices.

Medication

For students who require medication to be administered on a school trip, it is strongly recommended that the person who regularly administers the medication to the student is present on the trip, if this is possible.

1. The medicine must be transported in a secure location and be kept within storage requirements.
2. The 'Medicine Administration Form' and 'Permission to Administer Medication Form' must accompany the medicine and must be completed at the time of administration.
3. On arrival back to school, the medicine must be put back in its storage location and the field trip 'Medicine Administration form' and 'Permission to Administer Medication Form' must be attached to the file.

Walking Field Trips

During the year the teachers at the school take the children out in the community on walking field trips. These trips are within Kimberley town limits. We ask all parents to sign an initial consent form giving our staff permission for these trips.

Our commitment to our parents:

- to notify parents of all walking trips either by e-mail, personally or Seesaw
- make sure all children are dressed appropriately.
- All children will be under staff supervision at all times.

Celebrations and holidays at KIS include activities that do not focus on food.
- d) Lunches: Staff, parents, and students will demonstrate a commitment to healthy eating by including foods from the "Choose Most Often" and "Choose Sometimes" guidelines in the lunches that they consume at the school.
- e) Fundraising: To support student's health and school nutrition-education efforts, school fundraising activities will strive to include food from the "Choose Most Often" and "Choose A Sometimes" guidelines.
- f) Staff Role-Modeling: KIS staff recognizes the importance and impact that healthy role modeling can have on influencing student behaviours. All staff members are encouraged to choose food and beverages from the "Choose Most Often" and "Choose Sometimes" guidelines during school hours, school meetings and when interacting with students at school (e.g. staff will not drink soft drinks in the classroom or hallways.)
- g) Education: KIS staff will provide nutrition education to the school community to foster lifelong habits of healthy eating. This includes but is not limited to health class, physical education class, and all school sponsored events.

8.2 Physical Activity

The Kimberley Independent School includes Daily Physical Activity and active play as an integral part of school schedule.

- a) Daily Physical Activity: Every day students will receive at least 30 minutes and up to 45 minutes of activity in compliance with the Provincial policy, (i.e., sufficient to raise heart rates) including scheduled physical education.
- b) School staff will report to parents on the attainment of the DPA requirement via report cards, as consistent with provincial guidelines.

8.3 Positive Mental Wellbeing

The Kimberley Independent School community shall continue to support the positive mental wellbeing of staff and students by:

- fostering a positive social environment
- promoting cognitive, social, and emotional healthy development
- minimizing barriers to development and learning

- equitable;
- of high quality;
- relevant;
- accessible; and
- accountable.

If Kimberley Independent School feels it has staff or facility limitations that will not allow for the student's needs to be met, then the school will consult with the family and reserves the right to refuse or end enrollment.

The Kimberley Independent School will not cover the cost of student testing to determine Special Needs.

Families must provide full disclosure of pre-existing conditions at the time of enrollment. Special Needs funding, if applicable, will be distributed as outlined in the Special Needs funding Allocation section. The full Policy can be requested from the office.
